Making cookies

Mmm, something _____ good. My friend's mum is making cookies. They are chocolate chips, my favorite. I think I'll go home and _____ my mum if we can _____ cookies too.

I _____ all the way home and rush through the door, I yell mum, mum. She _____ up from her bedroom her eyes wide. What? "She answers", a little worried. I breathlessly ask if we can please pretty please make cookies. "She _____ and says, I guess so! Yes, "I replied".

First mum _____ me to get out the cooking stuff. So, I get out the mixer in bowl, the measuring cups and spoons, and the cookie sheets. Then she tells me to get out the recipe book. I _____ her that the recipe is on the chocolate chip package. Right, "she says". Then she _____ me to look at the recipe and get out the things we _____; like flour, sugar, and butter. We set the oven temperature to 350° F. Then we mix all the flour and other stuff ingredients together. Last we added the chocolate chips. We _____ the batter by big tea spoons fall onto the cookie sheets. We _____ the timer for 12 minutes and just sit back and enjoy the good smell. The buzzer _____, we take the cookies out, Oh, they all look good. We don't even wait for them to cool down. Both, mom and I get a big glass of cold milk into big warm cookies each. Yum-Yum. Want to _____ us?
