

Test 1 Reading Part 2

For each question, choose the correct answer.

These teenagers are looking for blogs to read. On the opposite page, there are descriptions of some blogs for young people.

Read and underline words that tell what each teenager likes to read about. Then read the descriptions and decide which blog would be the most suitable for each of them.

6

Viktor would like to read blogs that have been written by people his own age. He is keen on music and would like some recommendations on good bands to listen to.

7

Romina is interested in clothes and would like some advice on what to wear. She likes to read about people who appear on TV shows.

8

Akiro likes reading about the greatest music festivals in the world. He also likes making films and he needs advice on what music films he could see.

9

Gibrana is interested in nature. She loves reading about the lives of people who make a difference in other countries.

10

Oliver enjoys going to concerts and wants to find out more about the people who play in his favourite bands. He doesn't like reading articles written by adult people.

Test 1 Reading Part 2

- A Some well-known journalists write for RTeens, a music blog aimed at the teen and adult markets. There are interviews with new bands as well as the latest news on recordings, tours and festivals. A popular section is the annual followers vote for the best new band.
- B Forever Young is a very successful blog aimed at listing who is playing, where and when and how tickets can be bought at lower prices. Here teenagers can find interviews with the most popular singers and bands who have themselves provided information for the "My Biography" section. Followers have the chance to send their articles and, if they are good, they are put on it.
- C Wildlife and environmental contents have given the MNF blog a good reputation among bloggers, and the inclusion of the history and culture of people in different parts of the world has put it just one step ahead. Some people find the articles quite long and detailed, but their fantastic design and photography have made the followers accept them positively.
- D The newest environmental blog created by teenagers is Young Stay. Followers can send in their articles; they get revised and chosen for the next update. Teenagers can also find articles about the natural world, news on clothing (special offers) and national sports competitions.
- E Teens Don't Stop is easy to read. Its different sections offer fashion and beauty advice, interviews with VIPs and film stars. Teenagers will also find pictures of professional singers and athletes.
- F Youth World is an entertainment blog full of ideas on what to do. It provides details of all the latest films, concerts, exhibitions and fashion shows. If you are someone who prefers to stay in, it also recommends the best DVDs to watch.
- G Step Ahead is very different from any other teen blog. It does not simply offer articles on pop music, fashion or make-up, it goes deeper into investigating what's going on all around the world. Topics like current affairs, politics and science make it just unmissable. A wide variety of reviews on recent books, films and music CDs is also available.
- H Teen Way depends completely on articles sent in by its teenage followers. It gives young people the opportunity to share their creative work and to voice their opinions on music trends and write reviews of the latest music CDs.
