

Read, listen and complete the text.

- Use one word for each line.

Teenagers typically _____ about two hours per week shopping for clothes, and they spend around 80 Euros per month on clothes. Special offers, promotional events and end of _____ sales are common in the UK to encourage people to buy clothes. These sales are typically in _____ and at the end of the _____. This is Camden Lock a young person's shopping paradise in North London.

The shops and market stalls are great places to buy clothes and _____. The streets are always busy here, especially on Saturdays and Sunday mornings, and the shops are full of _____, alternative things and this is the reason why teenagers like Camden Lock so _____.

Some people were interviewed about their shopping habits.

- Read the responses, listen and match the speaker in turn with the appropriate response.

- | | |
|------------------------|--|
| Speaker 1 _____ | a) If it's just everyday clothes, it's more about kind of price, but fashion as well obviously. |
| Speaker 2 _____ | b) Clothes, clothes and shoes especially. |
| Speaker 3 _____ | c) I love shopping! I am a fashion student, so it's in my nature. |
| Speaker 4 _____ | d) At the moment I'm quite into kind of ethical fashion, so clothes are aren't produced in sweat shops. |
| Speaker 5 _____ | e) Clothes I buy... second-hand clothes from like second-hand stores, and share clothes with my flatmate. |
| Speaker 6 _____ | f) Fashionable items but quite cheap, I don't like to spend much money, yeah! |