

Name: _____ . Grade: _____ . Group: _____ . Date: _____ .

Are these statements TRUE (T), FALSE (F) or NOT MENTIONED (NM)? Choose the correct answer for each sentence.

- 1. Only a third of Americans say they have travelled overnight for leisure since March.
- 2. Traveling is a really fun and recreational activity.
- 3. The U.S. Travel Association is launching a national recovery campaign called "Let's Go Here."
- 4. Connecting with communities and spending money to support locals is part of sustainable tourism.
- 5. One of the great benefits of travel is meeting new people and coming into contact with different points of view.

Read the following phrases that people said on this article, then match the information.

- 1. _____ "My mind can take me the rest of the way around this world and beyond it." a) James Hopkins
- 2. _____ "One of the great benefits of travel is meeting new people and coming into contact with different points of view." b) James Oglethorpe
- 3. _____ "No matter how many candles I lit, or how much incense I burned, and in spite of living in one of the most sacred places in South Asia, I just couldn't change my habits." c) Henry David Thoreau
- 4. _____ "From the right point of view, every storm and every drop in it is a rainbow." d) Pauline Frommer
- 5. _____ "I look forward to experiencing it as a gift." e) Tom Swick
- f) Writer's wife