

You will watch a video about “Appreciating all our Public Transport Workers”, listen carefully and answer the exercise.

- Complete the paragraph with information from the video.

If life is a _____, every choice we make is a transit between the safe and _____, and the bright lights of our dreams, but our journeys are never _____ alone.

A month of resilient, the daring, the ones who are finding their way. There are those who see past the _____, who pay attention to the smallest _____, so we can home at the end of the day even when the doors closed, and the world _____...

These are the people who work _____ to bring us where we want to go, who understand that going the extra mile lies in how much they care, who know that every road requires patience, so chaos gives way to _____, who see pit stops as pauses, shelter as _____, and the destination as a life’s work in the making, because the road they’ve taken it’s the one that pays our world to the _____ heroes who move us. Thank you!

Follow-up questions.

1. What are they thanking for?

Explain: _____.

2. What do they refer to when they talk about “work tirelessly”?

Explain: _____.

3. Why does chaos give someone clarity?

Explain: _____.

4. Who are the unsung heroes?

Explain: _____.