

Name: _____.

Grade: _____. Group: _____. Date: _____.

Match the information with the correct sport. There is 1 extra option.

- |   |                      |
|---|----------------------|
| 1. It is particularly popular in Asia, with many of the best players ever to grace the game hailing from the continent. ( ) | a) Field Hockey      |
| 2. With over 220 affiliated national federations registered to 'FIVB'. ( )  | b) Soccer / Football |
| 3. Widely recognized as the most popular individual sport in the world ( )  | c) Basketball        |
| 4. A minimum of 450 million people play the sport around the world. ( )   | d) Cricket           |
| 5. It was estimated that there are 265 million people who play the sport. ( )   | e) Badminton         |
| 6. It is played by men and women in over 100 countries on 5 continents around the world. ( )                                | f) Volleyball        |
| 7. 125 countries around the world play the sport. ( )   | g) Tennis            |
|   | h) Table Tennis      |

Write T for TRUE sentences and F for FALSE sentences.

1. Historically, baseball was more popular in America than anywhere else in the world, but the sport is now becoming increasingly popular in other countries such as Japan. (    )
2. A firm favourite at the Olympic Games, field hockey is a highly technical sport. (    )
3. Perhaps one of the least popular pastimes in the world, according to Golf Today. (    )
4. Legendary figures in the world of basketball such as Michael Jordan and Kobe Bryant, have aided the rise in global popularity of the sport from its American roots. (    )
5. There are 265 million people who play the sport along with more than 51 million referees. (    )