My trip to Canada

Some time ago, I went to study in Canada for a couple of months. I was sure I could arrive on time at the airport because it is near my house, but that day we got stuck in traffic because it was raining cats and dogs. I was worried because getting to the airport usually takes 10 minutes, but that day took me 2 hours, so I had to rush to check in. My final destination was Victoria, Canada, but I had two stopovers: Toronto and Calgary.

As soon as I arrived in Toronto, I walked to the connecting gate because I had only 40 minutes to get to my other flight. I was so nervous that I accidentally went the wrong way and got out of the airport, so I had to go to the information point and ask the woman who was there for help. I hadn't practised my English for five years, so I didn't understand at all. I had to go back to the airline with which I had been travelling before and ask a flight attendant for help. She helped me and we ran because my flight was going to take off soon.

I arrived at my flight and hours later I arrived in Victoria, but there were 2 problems: my luggage stayed in Toronto and my cab didn't arrive to pick me up, so my host mom had to pick me up 5 hours later. The next day my luggage arrived, and the adventure continued. That was one of my best life experiences.
