

Name: _____

Grade: _____ Group: _____ Date: _____

Write True (T) or False (F) for each sentence.

1. Teens don't tend to have a lot of energy to get out, so go out there and get active with them.
2. There will probably be some expected conversations along the way.
3. If you are trained and have the proper equipment, take them rock climbing. If not, find a local rock climbing wall.
4. As long as you are in good health, get out there with your teen and have a blast.
5. The shared adrenaline rush on a roller coaster as your stomach feels like it leaves your body will be a moment neither of you will forget.
6. It's important that your teen learns the world doesn't revolve around him/her.
7. Make sure your child gets to talk about the sites up close and personal.
8. The photo hunt activity helps you to take the time beforehand to learn about the animals you may see and their behavior.

Take two important sentences from each subtitle and write them down.

Subtitle	Sentence 1	Sentence 2
10 Fun Things to Do with Your Teens
Get active
Movie marathon
Hike, Camp, and/or Rock Climb
Go to an Amusement Park
Community service
Take a road trip
Photo hunt
Play games
Bowling
Let them decide		