

On prompt talking

LANGUAGE ADVENTURE :)

ENGLISH IDIOMS

FRIENDSHIP

Through thick and thin

somebody is there to support you in good times and in bad times

Two peas in a pod

we use this expression to describe two friends who are very close and like the same things

To hit it off

to get on well with somebody at the very early stage in your relationship

To get on like a house on fire to become close friends very rapidly

To build bridges

to try to improve relationships between people who do not like each other

Thick as thieves

to have a close, intimate friendship and share

secrets

Use an idiom 😊

My roommate and I _____
_____ the first time we met and have been close friends now for almost 40 years.

Do kids feel
going to the
dentist?
Do they
have good
with
doctors?

Use an idiom 😊

My best friend works with me in the same office. We are

_____.

I really want
to _____

_____ and
_____ have better
relationship
with my colleagues.

Use an idiom 😊

I went to a trip, started talking with one guy, and we _____
_____, now we are
doing extreme sports together.

I think you
should have a
good
relationship
with your
and
mind, that
you to
be in health.

The best part of
my work is the
way people

between them.

It's _____
_____ job.

My family has supported me

_____ •

Is it possible
to be _____ _____ a

person and
an animal?

Nice on prompt talking

