

Making friends

Look and think about all the different people you can meet, no matter their personalities.

You are new in a place and you want to get new friends. How could you do it? If you were a shy person, what would be the best way to make friends? How could you help shy people to interact with others? What would be the best scenario to make friends? Explain.

You need to support your answers. Follow the template to get more information.

Meeting new people
Activities I could do to make friends
Places I could visit to make friends
Three good ideas to meet friends
Characteristics I'm looking for to make a friend
Places or situations in which I feel comfortable
Extra notes	