The digital version contains links which take you straight to related pages if you want to find out more. For example, you can read about Part 1 of the Reading and Writing paper in the Tasks section, then click on the link to take you straight to a sample Part 1 task. There are also links which take you to useful websites and resources.

Tasks

The Tasks pages give information about the exam format and what is tested in each part of the paper.

Preparing learners

The Preparing learners pages give information and advice about what teachers can do to prepare their learners for the exam. There are also links to useful websites to find additional materials. You'll find suggested exam strategies to help learners perform to the best of their ability on the day.

Sample paper and assessment

The Sample paper and assessment section includes a sample paper for each of the four components as well as an answer key for the Reading and Listening components. For the Writing and Speaking papers there is information about the assessment criteria, and for Writing there are example answers for you to refer to or use with your learners.

Cambridge

English Qualifications

Cambridge English Qualifications are in-depth exams that make learning English enjoyable, effective and rewarding.

Our unique approach encourages continuous progression with a clear path to improving language skills. Each of our qualifications focuses on a level of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR), enabling learners to develop and build speaking, writing, reading and listening skills.

Our qualifications are based on research into effective teaching and learning. They motivate people of all ages and abilities to learn English and develop practical skills for the real world.

We have Cambridge English Qualifications for:

- Schools
- General and higher education
- Business

Whether learners are planning to live, work or study in their own country or abroad, our qualifications prove they have the English language skills to succeed.

A2 Key – an overview

A2 Key is a basic level qualification that shows a candidate has achieved a good foundation in learning English. It is an ideal first exam for those new to learning English and gives learners confidence to study for higher Cambridge English Qualifications such as B1 Preliminary and B2 First.

Exam formats

A2 Key can be taken as either a paper-based or computer-based exam.

Who is the exam for?

A2 Key is aimed at learners who need to show they can:

- understand and use basic phrases and expressions
- understand simple written English
- interact with English speakers at a basic level.

Who recognises the exam?

The A2 Key certificate is recognised around the world as a basic qualification in English.

Cambridge English Qualifications are accepted and trusted by thousands of organisations worldwide. For more information about recognition go to cambridgeenglish.org/recognition

What level is the exam?

A2 Key is targeted at Level A2 on the CEFR. Achieving a certificate at this level proves that a candidate can use English to communicate in simple situations.

Statements of Results

The Statement of Results shows the candidate's:

- score on the Cambridge English Scale for their performance in each of the three exam papers (Reading and Writing, Listening and Speaking)
- score on the Cambridge English Scale for their overall performance in the exam. The Reading and Writing paper tests two skills so the score is doubled. The overall score is calculated by adding all of the individual scores together and dividing by four
- grade – this is based on the candidate's overall score
- level on the CEFR – this is also based on the overall score.

Certificates

The certificate shows the candidate's:

- score on the Cambridge English Scale for each of the three exam papers
- overall score on the Cambridge English Scale
- grade
- level on the CEFR
- level on the UK National Qualifications Framework (NQF).

About the exam

A2 Key is a rigorous and thorough test of English at Level A2. It covers all four language skills – reading, writing, listening and speaking.

A thorough test of all areas of language ability

There are three papers: detailed information on each test paper is provided later in this handbook, but the overall focus of each test is as follows:

Reading and Writing: 60 minutes

Candidates need to be able to understand simple written information such as signs and newspapers, and produce simple written English.

Listening: 30 minutes – approximately

Candidates need to show they can follow and understand a range of spoken materials such as announcements, when people speak reasonably slowly.

Speaking: 8–10 minutes

Candidates take the Speaking test with another candidate or in a group of three. They are tested on their ability to take part in different types of interaction: with the examiner, with the other candidate and by themselves.

Each of the three test components contributes to a profile which defines the candidates' overall communicative language ability at this level.

Marks and results

A2 Key gives detailed, meaningful results.

	Overall length	Number of tasks/parts	Number of items
A2 Key
Reading and Writing	60 mins	7	32
Listening	approx 30 mins	5	25
Speaking	8–10 mins	2	–
Total	total approx 1 hour 40 mins

All candidates receive a Statement of Results. Candidates whose performance ranges between CEFR Levels A1 and B1 (Cambridge English Scale scores of 100–150) also receive a certificate.

Grade A: Cambridge English Scale scores of 140–150
Candidates sometimes show ability beyond Level A2. If a candidate achieves a Grade A in their exam, they will receive the Key English Test certificate stating that they demonstrated ability at Level B1.

Grade B and Grade C: Cambridge English Scale scores of 120–139
If a candidate achieves a Grade B or Grade C in their exam, they will receive the Key English Test certificate at Level A2.

CEFR Level A1: Cambridge English Scale scores of 100–119
If a candidate's performance is below Level A2, but falls within Level A1, they will receive a Cambridge English certificate stating that they demonstrated ability at Level A1.

Can do summary

What can candidates do at Level A2?

The Association of Language Testers in Europe (ALTE) has researched what language learners can typically do at each CEFR level. They have described each level of ability using Can Do statements, with examples taken from everyday life. Preparing learners

Advice for teachers

Writers use the language specifications when preparing tasks so they are suitable for learners at A2 level, which is the CEFR level of A2 Key.

Whenever possible, the texts used in the Reading component are adapted from authentic reading texts. They may include:

- notices and signs (Part 1)
- packaging information (Part 1)
- notes, emails, cards, text messages (Parts 1, 5)
- newspapers and magazines (Parts 2, 3, 4)
- simplified encyclopaedias and other non-fiction books (Part 4)
- brochures and leaflets (Parts 2, 3, 4)
- websites (Parts 2, 3, 4).

Teachers may need to adapt texts to make them suitable for A2-level learners. The vocabulary list and the language specifications can help teachers to identify suitable language areas. The vocabulary list is updated annually.

Learners can get more information from the Information for candidates guide.

Teachers can find lesson plans and sample papers on the Cambridge English website.

Tips for preparing learners for the Reading component

- ✓ Give learners a wide range of text types to read, both authentic and adapted. For example, notes and messages on social media websites, information leaflets, graded readers and articles.
- ✓ Help learners practise skimming and scanning both shorter and longer texts. Encourage learners to develop a habit of always skimming a text first to get a general understanding.
- ✓ Give learners practice reading texts with unfamiliar vocabulary, learning to ignore words which are not important for the task.
- ✓ Encourage your learners to read instructions carefully. Ask them to highlight key words, and use examples to help them understand what to do.
- ✓ Give learners practice doing timed exercises and exam tasks where they need to manage their own time in the Reading and Writing paper. Suggest that they spend about 40 minutes on the Reading component (leaving about 20 minutes for the Writing component).
- ✓ Help learners think about the different ways they read texts. For example, if they are reading an information leaflet then ask them to find some specific information. If they are reading a message, ask them to think how they would reply to it.
- ✓ Help your learners to work out the meaning of new words by using the rest of the text. Encourage them not to use a dictionary for every new word.

Completing the answer sheet (paper-based test only)

- All answers must go on an answer sheet.
- Candidates should use a pencil to complete the answer sheet.
- There is no additional time allowed for completing the answer sheet: candidates must do this within the 1 hour allowed for the test.
- For the Reading component, candidates shade a lozenge on the answer sheet to show their answer.
- For the Writing component, candidates write their answers on the correct part of the answer sheet.

Completing the computer-based test (computer-based test only)

- All answers are typed directly onto the computer.
- Candidates may take pens and pencils and a bottle of water into the exam room, but nothing else (including bags and anything electronic).
- Candidates should listen carefully to the instructions which the invigilator gives and follow the instructions on the computer screen.
- There are no examples in the Reading component, but candidates watch a short tutorial before the test.
- There is a timer on the screen which tells candidates how much time they have left.
- Candidates may make notes on paper during the exam, for example if they want to plan an answer for the Writing component. They must leave these notes on their desk at the end of the exam.

Young blog writers

Tasha

Last year I wrote for my college magazine, which I found really difficult, but I don't think it's hard to write a good blog. Mine is about things from daily life that make me laugh. My older brother also has a blog, but we're writing about different subjects. We don't discuss what we're planning, but we read each other's blogs sometimes. I like giving advice to people who write in asking for it - it's good to know I've helped.

Danni

I almost writing my popular film blog because I love movies. I like it when readers send me articles by email about a film they've seen, and I put these on my blog for everyone to read. I'm still at college, so I'm careful about spending too long on my blog, which is difficult as writing well takes time. I don't think I'll write it for much longer. I'm busy, and it's time to do something new.

Christie

I began writing on a school magazine. I stopped after a few years, but I missed it, so I started my own - I'm still writing it now! The blog's new for me, and I write about daily life. I get ideas from friends or my sister when I can't decide what to write about - we always think of something interesting, sad or serious. At first, almost nobody visited my site, but now more do. I've had some lovely comments.

Tips for preparing learners for the Writing component

- ✓ Learners need to leave themselves enough time to complete Writing Parts 6 and 7, which carry 30 marks out of the total 60 for the Reading and Writing paper.
- ✓ Learners must use clear handwriting so that examiners can read their answers easily. The most important thing is that their handwriting is clear; they can write in upper or lower case, and it does not matter if their writing is joined up or not.
- ✓ In Parts 6 and 7, learners should aim to write roughly the required number of words. This will ensure that they don't leave out important information (for example, a content point in Parts 6 and 7), that their message is clear and doesn't include any irrelevant information.
- ✓ Learners should be very familiar with the two writing tasks and their requirements before they take the exam.

FOR EMAIL-WRITING:

- Learners should write to penfriends or 'e-pals' regularly.
- Learners should read and notice the organisation of emails, including typical language and phrases used for opening and closing an email.

FOR STORY-WRITING:

- Learners should plan and write short stories regularly, both at home and in class.
- Learners should also read short stories, for example simplified readers in English. They can use these to identify how stories start, develop and end.

- ✓ The word length is a guide which learners should aim for.
- ✓ Learners shouldn't spend too long on the Reading or Writing paper. Suggest that they spend about 20 minutes on the Writing component (leaving about 40 minutes for the Reading component).

Advice by task

Candidates should practise these exam strategies regularly in class.

Young blog writers

Tasha

Last year I wrote for my college magazine, which I found really difficult, but I don't think it's hard to write a good blog. Mine is about things from daily life that make me laugh. My older brother also has a blog, but we're writing about different subjects. We don't discuss what we're planning, but we read each other's blogs sometimes. I like giving advice to people who write in asking for it – it's good to know I've helped.

Danni

I started writing my popular film blog because I love movies. I like it when readers send me articles by email about a film they've seen, and I put these on my blog for everyone to read. I'm still at college, so I'm careful about spending too long on my blog, which is difficult as writing well takes time. I don't think I'll write it for much longer. I'm busy, and it's time to do something new.

Chrissie

I began writing on a school magazine. I stopped after a few years, but I missed it, so I started my own – I'm still writing it now! The blog's new for me, and I write about daily life. I get ideas from friends or my sister when I can't decide what to write about – we always think of something interesting, sad or serious. At first, almost nobody visited my site, but now more do, I've had some lovely comments.

Questions 14 – 18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

A family of dancers

The women in the Watson family are all crazy about ballet. These days, Alice Watson gives ballet lessons, but for many years, she was a dancer with the National Ballet Company. Her mother, Hannah, also had a full-time job there, making costumes for the dancers.

Alice's daughter Demi started learning ballet as soon as she could walk. 'I never taught her,' says Alice, 'because she never let me.' Now aged sixteen, Demi is a member of the ballet company where her mother was the star dancer for many years.

Alice's husband, Jack, is an electrician. They met while he was working at a theatre where she was dancing and got married soon after. 'When Demi started dancing, the house was too small for her and Alice to practise in so I made the garage into a dance studio. Now the living room is nice and quiet when I'm watching television!' he says.

Last month, Demi was invited to dance in the ballet Swan Lake. Of course, Alice and Hannah were in the audience and even Jack was there, which made it very special for Demi. Jack says, 'I'm not that interested in ballet myself but it's fantastic seeing Demi taking her first steps with Alice's old company!' Demi was wearing a dress that Hannah made for Alice many years before.

'It was very exciting for all of us,' says Hannah. 'Demi's way of dancing is very like Alice's. I know I'm her grandmother, but I think she has a great future!'

Sample answers

Candidate A

Hi Toni!

Saturday will be a nice weather, so I want to go swimming. Do you want to go with me? I want to visit a pool in park. We can travel on the bus. It is faster and not expensive. What do you think?

Alex

Mark and commentary 5 marks

Very good attempt at the task. All three elements of the message are fully communicated. No effort is required of the reader.

Candidate B

Hi Toni,

Do you want to go swimming with me on Saturday? I want to go swimming pool at new sports centre. We will travel by bus because pupils are cheaper.

Mark and commentary 4 marks

Good attempt at the task. All elements of the message are communicated. Minimal effort is required of the reader, for example with 'because pupils are cheaper'.

Candidate C

Hi Toni,

I am happy for your mail. I want to swim to golden beach on saturday. We can go with a car from my father. Are you OK?

Mark and commentary 3 marks

Satisfactory attempt at the task. Two elements of the message are communicated. Some effort is required of the reader, for example 'swim to golden beach'.

Candidate D

Toni,

Do you like to the beach? Maybe we have a nice weather and eat an ice cream, or play volleyball.

Mark and commentary 1 mark

Poor attempt at the task. Very little of the message is communicated.

Candidate E

Hi Toni,

I went to swimming on Saturday with brother and friend. We were very funny. Do you good in swimming?

Sample answers

Candidate A

Tom woke up at 7 o'clock. He washed his face and he wanted to make breakfast, but he saw that there were nothing in the fridge, so he went to the restaurant and ate a toast.

Mark and commentary 5 marks

Very good attempt at the task. All parts of the story are fully communicated and the connections between the pictures are clearly shown using simple linkers, allowing the reader to easily understand the whole story. Vocabulary is used accurately and the small grammar mistakes create no difficulty for the reader.

Candidate B

A man waked up and go in the kitchen, he searched something to eat for breakfast but he didn't like what he had in his house. So the man went to a café and he had breakfast here.

Mark and commentary 4 marks

Good attempt at the task. All three pictures are covered and communicated clearly. There is some good use of grammar and use of simple linkers. Even with the occasional grammar mistake the reader is able to understand most of the story.

Candidate C

In the morning the man get up. He go to a kitchen and he do a Breakfast, but in his fridge the milk doesn't stay. The man decide to go a bar and he order the Breakfast.

Mark and commentary 3 marks

Satisfactory attempt at the tasks, but not all parts of the story are clearly communicated. The description of picture 2 is unclear because of vocabulary errors, e.g. 'do a Breakfast' and 'the milk doesn't stay'. There is some attempt at organisation using simple linkers.

Candidate D

He wake up at the morning

He is sleeping

He is hungrry

He opened the frezeg

He eating lunch in the cafe

Mark and commentary 2 marks

The candidate has attempted the task, but this is a collection of unconnected and very simple sentences more than a story. Although the individual sentences are comprehensible, the links between the events are not shown and the candidate lacks the language to convey the intended meaning clearly, so the reader understands little of the story.

Candidate E

Mark and commentary 1 mark

The candidate has attempted the task, but because of limited range and control of language very little of the story is communicated and it is difficult to infer the connections between the phrases the candidate has written.

Preparing learners

Advice for teachers

The texts and tasks in the Listening paper reflect the variety of listening situations which learners at A2 level are expected to deal with. Teachers should ensure that learners are exposed to a range of listening situations and interactions.

- The recordings contain a range of standard native-speaker accents. Learners should practise listening to a variety of accents.
- When selecting listening material, teachers can use the topics list to help them identify suitable topics to use with learners.
- Teachers may find that the inventory of functions, notions and communicative tasks in the Language specifications helps them to identify different listening situations for learners to work with.

Learners can get more information from the Information for candidates guide.

Teachers can find lesson plans and sample papers on the Cambridge English website.

multiple-choice questions

question with image

Tips for preparing learners for the Listening paper

- ✓ The Listening paper is divided into five parts with a total of 25 questions.
- ✓ The listening texts are recorded on CD, and each text is heard twice. There are pauses for candidates to look at the questions and to write their answers.
- ✓ The instructions to the candidates on the recording are the same as the instructions on the question paper.
- ✓ Help learners identify and understand the type of text they are listening to. They should also identify the purpose of the task that they have to do. Together, these activities will help them to choose the most appropriate listening strategies for the tasks in the exam.
- ✓ Use classroom discussion activities and listening to the teacher to help to develop listening skills. However, learners must also listen to a range of recordings to prepare for the content of the exam.
- ✓ Make sure learners read the instructions on the question paper, and listen to them on the recording so they are completely clear about what they have to do.
- ✓ Candidates doing the paper-based test should practise transferring their answers to the answer sheet within the time limit.
- ✓ All the texts in the exam are heard twice. Remind learners to use both listenings to refine their answers.
- ✓ Use the transcript of the recording once learners have completed a task. It can be useful to look at it to identify key phrases, cues, distraction, etc.
- ✓ Encourage learners not to leave blank spaces. They won't lose marks for a wrong answer. Ask learners to check they have an answer, as they might have understood more than they think.
- ✓ Practise different types of listening to develop your learners' listening skills. Testing should not be the only focus.

Completing the answer sheet (paper-based test only)

- All answers must go on an answer sheet.
- Candidates should write their answers on the question paper as they listen.
- They then have 6 minutes at the end of the test to copy these answers onto the answer sheet.
- Candidates should use a pencil to complete the answer sheet.
- For Parts 1, 3, 4 and 5, candidates shade a lozenge on the answer sheet to show their answer.
- For Part 2, candidates write their answers on the answer sheet.

Completing the computer-based test (computer-based test only)

- Candidates mark or type all their answers directly onto the computer.
- Candidates may take pens and pencils and a bottle of water into the exam room, but nothing else (including bags and anything electronic).
- Candidates should listen carefully to the instructions which the invigilator gives and follow the instructions on the computer screen.
- Candidates should check that they can hear the test properly. If they cannot hear the recording, they should raise their hand and inform the invigilator immediately.
- On the computer-based test only Part 2 has an example. For the other parts candidates can access a help screen for information.
- There is a timer on the screen which tells candidates how much time they have left.
- Candidates may make notes on paper during the exam, for example, if they want to write down two alternative answers where they are unsure. They must leave these notes on their desk at the end of the exam.

This is a sample A2 Key English Listening test.

There are five parts to the test. You will hear each piece twice.

We will now stop for a moment. Please ask any questions now because you must NOT speak during the test.

Now, look at the instructions for Part 1.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Look at Question 1.

1: Where will Claire meet Alex?

M: Hi Claire. Are you in the city centre?

F: Hi Alex. Yes, I'm just having a sandwich in the café. How about you?

M: I'm at the museum, looking at a really great art exhibition. Why don't you come and meet me here?

F: OK, but just for an hour. I've got to go to the hairdresser's at 2.

Now listen again.

2: What time should the man telephone again?

M: Can I speak to Fred Warner, please?

F: He's in a meeting now. I'll ask him to call you at quarter past ten when he comes out.

M: I'm seeing a customer then. I can phone at twelve o'clock.

F: He'll be in another meeting then. Call at half past before he goes for lunch.

M: OK.

Now listen again.

3: When are they going to have the party?

M: Shall we have a party this month? A Friday night is best. How about July the eighteenth?

F: I have to work late that day. The eleventh will be better.

M: We've got theatre tickets for then. Are we doing anything on the twenty-fifth?

F: That's fine. Let's make it then. The eleventh is too soon anyway.

Now listen again.

4: What was the weather like on the picnic?

M: Did you have a good picnic yesterday? It was so sunny and hot!

F: Yes, but we almost didn't go because the television weatherman was talking about rain.

M: So did you take umbrellas with you?

F: Yes, but of course we didn't use them. It's good we didn't go today – there's such a strong wind!

Now listen again.

5: How much are the shorts?

M: Excuse me, are these shorts in the sale?

F: Yes, sir. Everything on that shelf is five pounds.

M: I'll take this shirt too.

F: That's fifteen pounds, so with the shorts that will be twenty pounds.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 1.

Now look at Part 2.

For each question, write the correct answer in the gap. Write one word, or a number, or a date, or a time. Look at Questions 6–10 now. You have 10 seconds.

You will hear a teacher talking to a group of students about summer jobs.

M: Several students from this college went to work for Sunshine Holidays last year and enjoyed it. So I'm going to give you some information about working in their summer camps this year.

The camps start on the fifteenth of June so you must be free from then until August the twentieth. Most students then spend September travelling around and having a holiday before they come home.

The camps are for children who are between ten and fifteen years old and to work there you have to be nineteen. So that's OK for most of you.

You don't need to be good at sports or languages but they only want people who can drive. That's because you'll take the children out on trips by car. Each week you'll get sixty-five pounds, so you could save over five hundred pounds during your time there.

If you're interested, you need to write a letter and send it with a photo to Sunshine Holidays. So, does anyone have any questions ...?

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 2.

Now look at Part 3.

For each question, choose the correct answer. Look at Questions 11–15 now. You have 20 seconds.

You will hear Robert talking to his friend, Laura, about a trip to Dublin.

M: Hi Laura. Some of us are going for a weekend in Dublin this year. Are you free at the beginning of next month?

F: Yes, I'd love to come.

M: Great!

F: Who else is going?

M: I asked my cousins, but they're playing in a tennis competition – so there'll be four of us from my office, and you.

F: Where are we staying?

M: I tried to book a guest-house. It was full, but visitors can rent rooms in the university during the holidays. We'll do that – it's cheaper than a hotel.

- F: Excellent. Are you taking your new camera?
 M: Yes, some maps of the city too. But you'll need a coat! It often rains.
 F: OK!
 M: Have you been before?
 F: Yes! The centre's busy – the shops are always full of people! My friends and I loved all the beautiful buildings – I really enjoyed learning about their history.
 M: Yeah!
 F: So, are you excited about the trip?
 M: Yeah but it's a pity the music festival won't be on. When I'm in Dublin I always have lots of fun – it's fantastic. There's a new art exhibition – you might like it, but I'm not interested.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 3.

Now look at Part 4.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

16: You will hear a woman talking to her friend about why she bought a motorbike. Why did she buy it?

- M: So, you've got a motorbike, Sally?
 F: Yeah, what do you think?
 M: Cool!
 F: Thanks! I paid quite a lot for it, but I'll be able to get to college in ten minutes now. Remember how I was always late last year?
 M: And you were always having to repair your old bicycle, weren't you?
 F: Yeah. It was just too slow, really.

Now listen again.

17: You will hear two friends talking about going to university. What subject is the man going to study?

- F: So do you think you'll enjoy university?
 M: Yes, especially the trips! I loved science at school, but I won't need it much. I thought about studying history but couldn't find a course I really liked. We're learning about mountains and rivers in the first term, which'll be great. And I'm looking forward to finding out about cities and how they've developed over time.

Now listen again.

18: You will hear two friends talking about a photograph. What's the photograph of?

- M: What a great photo!
 F: Thanks! They were all moving around so quickly – running and jumping about.
 M: Is that a group of mothers over there?
 F: Yes, and the little ones were all ready to go home. Their lessons were over for the day. It was raining, but they just wanted to run around after being indoors for so many hours.

Now listen again.

19: You will hear a woman talking on the phone. Why's she upset?

- F: I feel so upset! I can't see it anywhere. It probably fell out of my bag on the way to the station. I can't buy a ticket now! I'm going back to work to ask if anybody has seen it, or can lend me some money. I have an appointment for an eye test this afternoon – I'll be late now!

Now listen again.

20: You will hear a woman talking to her friend, David, about something she's bought. What has she bought?

- M: Did you buy something nice, Kate?
 F: Yes, David, I'm delighted! We're having a special meal tomorrow for my sister's birthday. My cousin's cooking and we'll play some board games afterwards. The whole family will be there and I want to look nice.
 M: Sure!
 F: I wanted something green, and this is so comfortable! Of course we'll all argue about the games!

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 4.

Now look at Part 5.

For each question, choose the correct answer. Look at Questions 21–25 now. You have 15 seconds.

You will hear Simon talking to Maria about a party. What will each person bring to the party?

- M: Are you nearly ready for your birthday party on Saturday, Maria?
 F: I think so, Simon. I've made a cake and my friends are bringing the other food.
 M: That's a good idea.
 F: Barbara's going to bring some oranges and grapes.
 M: And I'll bring some bread and cheese from the market if you like. Everyone gets hungry at parties, don't they?
 F: Thanks, Simon. But you don't need to bring bread because Anita's bringing that. She wanted to bring ice cream but I think the weather's too cold!
 M: Mm, it is. Perhaps Peter can help. He likes cooking, doesn't he?
 F: Yes, he emailed me and asked me to choose roast chicken or fish. I chose chicken because it's more popular than fish. What do you think?
 M: That sounds great! What's Michael bringing – he's coming, isn't he?
 F: Yes, he loves parties! I telephoned him and he's going to make a big bowl of sliced tomatoes and onions.
 M: Lovely!

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 5.

You now have 6 minutes to write your answers on the answer sheet.

You have one more minute.

That is the end of the test.

Advice for teachers

- The standard format for the Speaking test is two candidates and two examiners.
- One examiner is the interlocutor, who manages the interaction and speaks directly with the candidates. The interlocutor sets up the tasks and gives the candidates their instructions.
- The other examiner is the assessor, who does not join in the conversation, but assesses the candidates' performances.

- Candidates are usually assessed in pairs, unless there is an uneven number of candidates at a centre. In this case, the last test of the session will be a group of three. This is the only circumstance in which candidates can be assessed as a group of three.
- There are a number of packs of materials from which examiners can choose tasks in any one session.
- When selecting topics and resources for speaking practice, teachers can use the topics list to help them identify suitable topics to use with learners.

Learners can get more information from the Information for candidates guide.

Teachers can find lesson plans and sample papers on the Cambridge English website.

Tips for preparing learners for the Speaking paper

- ✓ Give your learners practice speaking English in a range of contexts and, as much as possible, with a range of different people.
- ✓ Make sure that learners are able to answer simple questions about themselves.
- ✓ Common topics for Part 1 include country of origin, subject of study, family, home town, free-time activities, likes and dislikes.
- ✓ Practise for the Part 2 collaborative task by using sample materials from the Cambridge English website.
- ✓ Watch videos of sample candidates, and do 'mock tests' to help your learners become very familiar with the format of the Speaking test.
- ✓ Use classroom activities which focus on expressing likes, dislikes and personal opinions, on expanding answers by giving reasons and on helping to keep conversations going by inviting and responding to opinions of others.
- ✓ If candidates have any difficulty in understanding an instruction or response, they should ask the interlocutor or their partner to repeat what they said. This will not normally result in any loss of marks.
- ✓ Encourage learners not to learn set pieces for the exam. These will sound unnatural and probably won't answer the specific questions asked.

THE TASK

- ▶ The interlocutor leads a general conversation with each of the candidates.
- ▶ In Part 1, Phase 1, the interlocutor asks questions of a factual and personal nature to each candidate in turn.
- ▶ Part 1, Phase 2 takes the form of a topic-based interview. The interlocutor asks two short-answer questions to each candidate about their daily life, interests, likes, dislikes etc. followed by one longer 'Tell me something about ...' question.
- ▶ Candidates respond directly to the interlocutor – they do not talk to each other in this task.
- ▶ Part 1 lasts 3–4 minutes in total.

HOW TO APPROACH THE TASK

- ▶ It's normal for candidates to feel nervous at the beginning of the Speaking test. This conversation uses everyday, simple language. It is designed to help settle candidates into the test.
- ▶ Candidates should listen carefully to the questions and give relevant answers.
- ▶ Candidates should avoid giving one-word answers, but try to extend their answers with reasons and examples wherever possible. However, they are not expected to give very long answers at this stage.
- ▶ If candidates have any difficulty in understanding a question, they should ask the interlocutor to repeat it.

ASSESSMENT

- ▶ This part of the test assesses the candidates' ability to answer simple questions about themselves. The focus is on interactional and social language.

- ▶ Part 2, Phase 1 takes the form of a discussion based on five illustrations representing an appropriate topic, e.g. hobbies. The candidates are asked to discuss the activities, things or places illustrated.
- ▶ The interlocutor allows candidates to speak together for 1–2 minutes before intervening to extend the conversation by asking questions related to the activities, things or places. A rounding-off short-answer question asked to both candidates closes this phase.
- ▶ In Part 2, Phase 2, the interlocutor leads a follow-up discussion on the same topic as that discussed in Phase 1. Each candidate is asked two questions.

- ▶ Candidates should aim to talk about all of the activities, things or places, saying which they like and dislike, and why.
- ▶ Candidates are encouraged to extend as much as possible by elaborating on their answers and by responding to each other's utterances, for example, giving their opinion on their partner's idea or asking a question to help keep the conversation going.
- ▶ Possible topics include activities and places relating to daily life, leisure activities, transport, towns and cities, and holidays.

Speaking assessment

Examiners and marking

The quality assurance of Speaking Examiners (SEs) is managed by Team Leaders (TLs). TLs ensure all examiners successfully complete examiner training and regular certification of procedure and assessment before they examine. TLs are in turn responsible to a Professional Support Leader (PSL) who is the professional representative of Cambridge English for the Speaking tests in a given country or region.

Annual examiner certification involves attendance at a face-to-face meeting to focus on and discuss assessment and procedure, followed by the marking of sample Speaking tests in an online environment. Examiners must complete standardisation of assessment for all relevant levels each year and are regularly monitored during live testing sessions.

Assessment scales

Throughout the test candidates are assessed on their own individual performance and not in relation to each other. They are awarded marks by two examiners: the assessor and the interlocutor. The assessor awards marks by applying performance descriptors from the analytical assessment scales for the following criteria:

- grammar and vocabulary
- pronunciation
- interactive communication.

The interlocutor awards a mark for global achievement using the global achievement scale.

A2	Global achievement
5	Handles communication in everyday situations, despite hesitation. Constructs longer utterances but is not able to use complex language except in well-rehearsed utterances.
4	Performance shares features of Bands 3 and 5.
3	Conveys basic meaning in very familiar everyday situations. Produces utterances which tend to be very short – words or phrases – with frequent hesitation and pauses.
2	Performance shares features of Bands 1 and 3.
1	Has difficulty conveying basic meaning even in very familiar everyday situations. Responses are limited to short phrases or isolated words with frequent hesitation and pauses.
0	Performance below Band 1.

Assessment for A2 Key is based on performance across all parts of the test, and is achieved by applying the relevant descriptors in the assessment scales. The assessment scales for A2 Key (shown on the following page) are extracted from the overall Speaking scales on page 46.

A2 Key Speaking Examiners use a more detailed version of the following assessment scales, extracted from the overall Speaking scales on the following page.

A2	Grammar and vocabulary	Pronunciation	Interactive communication
5	Shows a good degree of control of simple grammatical forms. Uses a range of appropriate vocabulary when talking about everyday situations.	Is intelligible. Intonation is generally appropriate. Sentence and word stress is generally accurately placed. Individual sounds are generally articulated clearly.	Maintains simple exchanges. Requires very little prompting and support.
4	Performance shares features of Bands 3 and 5.
3	Shows sufficient control of simple grammatical forms. Uses appropriate vocabulary to talk about everyday situations.	Is mostly intelligible, despite limited control of phonological features.	Maintains simple exchanges, despite some difficulty. Requires prompting and support.
2	Performance shares features of Bands 1 and 3.
1	Shows only limited control of a few grammatical forms. Uses a vocabulary of isolated words and phrases.	Has very limited control of phonological features and is often unintelligible.	Has considerable difficulty maintaining simple exchanges. Requires additional prompting and support.
0	Performance below Band 1.

Speaking assessment glossary of terms

1. General

Conveying basic meaning

Conveying basic meaning: the ability of candidates to get their message across to their listeners, despite possible inaccuracies in the structure and/or delivery of the message.

Situations and topics

Everyday situations: situations that candidates come across in their everyday lives, e.g. having a meal, asking for information, shopping, going out with friends or family, travelling to work, taking part in leisure activities. An A2 Key task that requires candidates to exchange details about a store's opening hours exemplifies an everyday situation.

Familiar topics: topics about which candidates can be expected to have some knowledge or personal experience. B2 First tasks that require candidates to talk about what people like to do on holiday, or what it is like to do different jobs, exemplify familiar topics.

Unfamiliar topics: topics which candidates would not be expected to have much personal experience of. C1 Advanced tasks that require candidates to speculate about whether people in the world today only care about themselves, or the kinds of problems that having a lot of money can cause, exemplify unfamiliar topics.

Abstract topics: topics which include ideas rather than concrete situations or events. C2 Proficiency tasks that require candidates to discuss how far the development of our civilisation has been affected by chance discoveries or events, or the impact of writing on society, exemplify abstract topics.

Utterance

Utterance: people generally write in sentences and they speak in utterances.

An utterance may be as short as a word or phrase, or a longer stretch of language.

2. Grammar and vocabulary

Appropriacy of vocabulary

Appropriacy of vocabulary: the use of words and phrases that fit the context of the given task. For example, in the utterance I'm very sensible to noise, the word sensible is inappropriate as the word should be sensitive. Another example would be Today's big snow makes getting around the city difficult. The phrase getting around is well suited to this situation. However, big snow is inappropriate as big and snow are not used together. Heavy snow would be appropriate.

Flexibility

Flexibility: the ability of candidates to adapt the language they use in order to give emphasis, to differentiate according to the context, and to eliminate ambiguity. Examples of this would be reformulating and paraphrasing ideas.

Grammatical control

Grammatical control: the ability to consistently use grammar accurately and appropriately to convey intended meaning.

Where language specifications are provided at lower levels (as in A2 Key and B1 Preliminary), candidates may have control of only the simplest exponents of the listed forms.

Attempts at control: sporadic and inconsistent use of accurate and appropriate grammatical forms. For example, the inconsistent use of one form in terms of structure or meaning; the production of one part of a complex form incorrectly; or the use of some complex forms correctly and some incorrectly.

Spoken language often involves false starts, incomplete utterances, ellipsis and reformulation. Where communication is achieved, such features are not penalised.

Grammatical forms

Simple grammatical forms: words, phrases, basic tenses and simple clauses.

Complex grammatical forms: longer and more complex utterances, e.g. noun clauses, relative and adverb clauses, subordination, passive forms, infinitives, verb patterns, modal forms and tense contrasts.

Range

Range: the variety of words and grammatical forms a candidate uses. At higher levels, candidates will make increasing use of a greater variety of words, fixed phrases, collocations and grammatical forms.

3. Discourse management

Coherence and cohesion

Coherence and cohesion are difficult to separate in discourse. Broadly speaking, coherence refers to a clear and logical stretch of speech which can be easily followed by a listener. Cohesion refers to a stretch of speech which is unified and structurally organised.

Coherence and cohesion can be achieved in a variety of ways, including with the use of cohesive devices, related vocabulary, grammar and discourse markers.

Cohesive devices: words or phrases which indicate relationships between utterances, e.g. addition (and, in addition, moreover); consequence (so, therefore, as a result); order of information (first, second, next, finally).

At higher levels, candidates should be able to provide cohesion not just with basic cohesive devices (e.g. and, but, or, then, finally) but also with more sophisticated devices (e.g. therefore, moreover, as a result, in addition, however, on the other hand).

Related vocabulary: the use of several items from the same lexical set, e.g. train, station, platform, carriage; or study, learn, revise.

Grammatical devices: essentially the use of reference pronouns (e.g. it, this, one) and articles (e.g. There are two women in the picture. The one on the right...).

Discourse markers: words or phrases which are primarily used in spoken language to add meaning to the interaction, e.g. you know, you see, actually, basically, I mean, well, anyway, like.

Extent/extended stretches of language

Extent/extended stretches of language: the amount of language produced by a candidate which should be appropriate to the task. Long-turn tasks require longer stretches of language, whereas tasks which involve discussion or answering questions could require shorter and extended responses.

Relevance

Relevance: a contribution that is related to the task and not about something completely different.

Repetition

Repetition: repeating the same idea instead of introducing new ideas to develop the topic.

4. Pronunciation

Intelligible

Intelligible: a contribution which can generally be understood by a non-EFL/ESOL specialist, even if the speaker has a strong or unfamiliar accent.

Phonological features

Phonological features include the pronunciation of individual sounds, word and sentence stress and intonation.

Individual sounds are:

pronounced vowels, e.g. the /æ/ in cat or the /e/ in bed

diphthongs, when two vowels are rolled together to produce one sound, e.g. the /əʊ/ in host or the /eɪ/ in hate consonants, e.g. the /k/ in cut or the /f/ in fish.

Stress: the emphasis laid on a syllable or word. Words of two or more syllables have one syllable which stands out from the rest because it is pronounced more loudly and clearly, and is longer than the others, e.g. imPORtant. Word stress can also distinguish between words, e.g. proTEST vs PROtest. In sentences, stress can be used to indicate important meaning, e.g. WHY is that one important? versus Why is THAT one important?

Intonation: the way the voice rises and falls, e.g. to convey the speaker's mood, to support meaning or to indicate new information.

5. Interactive communication

Development of the interaction

Development of the interaction: actively developing the conversation, e.g. by saying more than the minimum in response to the written or visual stimulus or to something the other candidate/interlocutor has said; or by proactively involving the other candidate with a suggestion or question about further developing the topic (e.g. What about bringing a camera for the holiday? or Why's that?).

Initiating and responding

Initiating: starting a new turn by introducing a new idea or a new development of the current topic.

Responding: replying or reacting to what the other candidate or the interlocutor has said.

Prompting and supporting

Prompting: instances when the interlocutor repeats, or uses a backup prompt or gesture in order to get the candidate to respond or make a further contribution.

Supporting: instances when one candidate helps another candidate, e.g. by providing a word they are looking for during a discussion activity, or helping them develop an idea.

Turn and simple exchange

Turn: everything a person says before someone else speaks.

Simple exchange: a brief interaction which typically involves two turns in the form of an initiation and a response, e.g. question–answer, suggestion–agreement.

Candidates who are successful in A2 Key should be able to satisfy their basic communicative needs in a range of everyday situations with both native and non-native speakers of English.

Lexis

The A2 Key vocabulary list includes items which normally occur in the everyday vocabulary of native speakers using English today.

Candidates should know the lexis appropriate to their personal requirements, for example, nationalities, hobbies, likes and dislikes.

Note that the use of American pronunciation, spelling and lexis is acceptable in A2 Key.

A list of vocabulary that may appear in the A2 Key and A2 Key for Schools examinations is available on our website:

cambridgeenglish.org/exams/key/preparation

The list does not provide an exhaustive register of all the words which could appear in A2 Key question papers and candidates should not confine their study of vocabulary to the list alone.

International English

English is used in a wide range of international contexts. To reflect this, candidates' responses to tasks in Cambridge English Qualifications are acceptable in all varieties and accents of English, provided they do not interfere with communication. Materials used feature a range of accents and texts from English-speaking countries, including the UK, North America and Australia. US and other versions of spelling are accepted if used consistently.
