Introduction

This booklet was made to be part of the resources used by Elementary school teachers in order to develop language skills.

The contents and activities in it include the vocabulary and structures of the Young Learners level for the Cambridge English Flyers exam, so that your students will gradually get familiar with it.

The EnglishHouse project also includes:

- Three practice exams to monitor and evaluate the students' performance at the Cambridge English Flyers level.
- Access to our website for further practice.

Learning English is fun!

To download the tracks for the listening activities, go to www.englishouse.mx

Reading

Look at the pictures and read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. You can use 1 to 4 words.

My name's Rossy. My uncle Pet is an actor. He's not a famous one, but last year he made a film with some actors who are very famous. It was very exciting. It was the best job he's had. In the film, he was a bad man! He had to steal a bag of money from a bank.

One day, uncle Pet was at a park working with some other actors and the camera men. He had to run across the grass with the bag of money. The camera men had to be running behind him to get the scene filmed.

A policeman was in the street. He didn't see the cameras. What he saw was my uncle Pet running with the bag. Then the policeman shouted "Stop!" He ran after my uncle and took him to the police station in his police car. The policeman asked uncle Pet lots of difficult questions about the bag of money. He couldn't believe the answers uncle Pet was giving to him. But then one of the famous actors from the film called "Fred Stars," arrived at the police station to help. When Fred explained everything, the policeman believed what uncle Pet had said.

The policeman said "Sorry!" and uncle Pet went back to work with his bag of money. Outside the police station, a journalist took a photo of uncle Pet with Fred Stars and it appeared in the city newspaper next morning. It was very funny!

Example

Holly is telling her mum what has just happened to George and Harry.

"Mum, Harry is ill." said Holly. "Oh, dear!" replied mum. "Yes, mum." said Holly.

"What has happened?" asked mum. "Well, we had lunch in a really nice restaurant and the waiter brought lots of food; meat, salad, fruit and some cakes.

Harry loves cakes. That's why he ate five slices." said Holly. "Five!" shouted mum.

"And now he says that his stomach hurts!" said Holly. "Of course his stomach hurts!"

said mum. "Where is he now?" asked mum. "He's laying down in bed. The doctor gave him some medicine; he said that he had to go without food for 24 hours. He is not happy about that." said Holly.

And what about George? What happened to him? asked mum. "Oh, mum. George hurt himself. We went for a camel ride at the zoo. George was riding his camel too fast when he fell off." said Holly. "Oh, no! Is he ok now? Can he walk?" asked mum.

"Well, the doctor has seen him and says he has broken his toe. He can't walk very well. He is watching cartoons now."
