

The zoo

I like Sundays because my parents take me to different places. We go to the movies or the park, but today we are going to the zoo.

My dad told me some safety rules! "Don't go far from me!" "Don't talk to strangers!"

My mum and grandma showed me some pictures of the animals there are in a zoo.

This is a giraffe. It is tall and thin. It eats leaves from the trees. Those are alligators. They are dangerous because they eat meat. They like to lie down on the rocks to heat their bodies.

We are now at the zoo. The first animal we see is a big brown bear.

Next we see other beautiful animals: elephants, monkeys, hippos, penguins and dolphins.

Before we go home, we visit the snakes. They are next to the turtles. They look like the ones I saw in the pictures.

We walk and walk through the zoo. Grandma, mum and dad are tired. We sit down near the lake and have some ice cream. "Oh, this could be a great picture!"

I take my dad's camera and tell everybody to smile. Now we have a nice picture to remember this day.

In the car, we talk about the animals we saw. My mum asks, "Where would you like to go next Sunday?" Then I say, "I'd like to visit the zoo again!"
